Pioneer Line of Steamers

FOR

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS PIONEER and Commodore Adams, will leave Newberne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. On and after the first day of December next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without charge.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families traveling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer Williams will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to Whitford, Dill & Co., Newbern, N C.

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION,

For the Times, and all Times, to be Considered.

The first stone in the structure of life insurance was laid by the hand of the Almighty when he planted in the human heart the generous impulses of love and affection, which prompt us to provide for our own; but the keystone is this law of average to secure which we bind ourselves together to bear each other's burdens, the stronger and richer, as the longer lives must be, helping the weaker and poorer brother that is cut down in early life, and by the universal law of compensation it gives us either the blessings of a long life, or the pleasing assurance of leaving a competency to our loved ones, as the films of death are curtaining them from our sight forever.

Times like the present make most manifest the peculiar benefit of life insurance. Business is interrupted. Men are anxious for the future. Thousands have families growing up around them whose property depends upon the continuance of the father's life. Should he die, the income would cease; the children must be withdrawn from school; the mother and elder children must resort to every expedient to sustain the family; and, in many cases, with the utmost exertion, this can not be done; the wife will return to her father for support, and the children, separated, must go, the older to seek work, and the younger be distributed among friends. Such reverses befall men the least expecting them. While business is active, and prosperity gives exhiliration and hope, men can hardly be made to feel that they are within a hand's breadth of utter reverse, and that their families may be scattered in a month, by the death of the father. But hard times lead men to think of these things.

Now if a man has insured a sum of one, five or ten thousand dollars upon his life, this anxiety is removed. While he lives, he can support his family. If he dies, ample provision is made for them.

It is every man's duty to provide for his family. That provision must include its future contingent condition. That provision, so far as it is material, men ordinarily seek to secure by their own accumulations and investments. But all these are uncertain. The man rich to-day, is, from causes beyond his reach, poor to-morrow. A war in China, a revolution in Europe, a rebellion in America, overrule ten thousand fortunes in every commercial community. But, in life insurance there are no risks or contingencies. Other investments may fail. A house may burn down. Banks may break. Bonds and mortgages may be seized for debt, and all property may fall into the bottomless gulf of bankruptcy. But money secured to your family by life insurance, will go to them without fail or interruption, provided you have selected a sound and honorable insurance company. Of two courses, one of which may leave your family destitute, and the other of which assures them a comfortable support at your decease, can there be a doubt which is to be chosen?"

The benefits of life insurance are not confined to a provision for families, but are as numerous as the various circumstances of individuals. It enables a person to make a provision for a wife, a parent, a child, a friend or domestic, depending on him, and he lives secure, that while his industry is providing for their support, his savings are effectually guarding them against want in the event of his death, thus doing his whole duty toward them instead of only one half of it.

It enables a person to raise money on loans where real security can not be offered, to provide for the prompt payment of his debts in the case of his death, and to secure the eventual payment of doubtful debts.

By it a charitable individual may donate a legacy to some beneficent institution; or a congregation a support to their minister's family in case of his death.

It provides means to reimburse the sum expended in the purchase of any life estate, on the death of the person during whose life it is held; to remove incumbrances, payable on events connected with the termination of life; and secures the return of money paid for education, for capital embarked in business, or other advances made for children or others, in the event of their premature death; and, generally, it affords a certain indemnity against any pecuniary loss whatsoever, to which one individual may become subject, by reason of the death of another.

It is a subject, then, which concerns the poor as well as the rich, the man living on his income, the mechanic the farmer, the professional man, the merchant—in short all classes of the community.

Surely, such an institution deserves the countenance, the consideration and support of all reflecting men, and is doubly recommended, when it is considered how very small a sacrifice of some personal gratification, will secure, by its means, the independence and happiness of a family.

W. H. CROW, Gen'l Agent.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.--Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

The Legislature.

The election of officers will employ the attention of the Legislature for a day or two more.—But little can be done till these are disposed of.—The passage of the constitutional amendment on the question of slavery, having been adopted, the most important matter which first claims its attention, is the adopting of a code for the regulation of the freedmen. This should be plain, explicit, liberal and just to the colored race, guarding the peace and quiet and rights of both races.

Besides the private legislation necessary, the subject of revenue and the protection of the people against a harsh and rigid collection of old debts, will demand the careful attention of the Legislature. No subject will require greater care in its adjustment than that of revenue. In the present condition of the people and the great scarcity of money, their inability to pay large taxes, must be apparent to every one. The national direct tax, which must be collected in a short time, will seriously embarrass many, and the tax already imposed by the Convention, will render it necessary to defer the collection of the next tax, to as distant a day as possible.

The organization of the Courts, giving them unrestrained powers to enforce the prompt collection of debts, would occasion very general distress and utter ruin to many persons. Yet it is important that the securement of ultimate payment to creditors, should be made as far as possible. The severe losses which many have experienced, and the poor prospect now presented of being able to pay their honest debts, must afflict every honest man.

The enforcement of the collection of the old debts rigidly, would irrecoverably ruin a large number of persons, yet the ultimate failure of creditors to secure their debts, would occasion much distress. It is hoped therefore, that the Legislature will be able to adjust these matters so as to afford proper protection to both debtors and creditors.

U. S. Senators.

Our readers are aware, that the name of Gov. Graham has stood prominently before the Legislature from the beginning, for a seat in the U. S. Senate. Soon after his unanimous election to the State Senate by the people of Orange, a certificate of his election was forwarded to Gov. Holden, to be sent on to President Johnson, expecting that, as in all other cases, the Governor would approve the election thus signally endorsed by the people of Orange, and that his pardon would be granted. It is known that Gov. Graham on taking his seat in the Senate after ascertaining his pardon had not come on, at once withdrew to await the pleasure of the President.

We learn that soon after his withdrawal, a petition to the President was gotten up, urging his pardon, signed by every member of the State Senate, and we have since heard it has been signed by nearly every member of the House. This petition was presented to Gov. Holden for his endorsement. This the Governor refused to give, but consented to address a letter to the President leaving the matter to his own decision. The petition was forwarded on Friday or Saturday last, but several days must elapse before the will of the President can be known. In the meantime, the Legislature determined to go into the election of U. S. Senatsrs on yesterday. On the first ballot, Mr. Graham was elected by a large vote for the long term. There was an evident reluctance on the part of several to vote against him at all. Indeed, if his pardon had arrived, his election would have been almost unanimous. We deeply regret that a man whose high position—whose known National reputation as a conservative, and a man whose character and political course has been so widely endorsed by the people of the State, both by the friends of Gov. Holden and the friends of Mr. Worth, should have been so misrepresented to the President and to the Governor, as to create any doubt whatever as to the propriety of his pardon. These misrepresentations, Gov. Graham will meet and refute overwhelmingly, whenever the opportunity is afforded.

Second Ballot for U. S. Senators.

On the second ballot for U. S. Senators on yesterday, John Pool, Esq., of Bertie, it will be seen, came within one vote of being elected for the short term. The Senate refused to go again into the election, and for the purpose of staving it off, we observe a ruse was employed. The reader will not view the action in regard to Gen. Clingman's alledged claim to a seat in the U. S. Senate in any other light, than an attempt to stave off another ballot.

Election of Senator for Orange.

It will be seen that Gov. Graham has resigned his seat as Senator from the County of Orange, and that a writ of election has been issued, ordering an election to fill the vacancy on Thursday, the 24th of the present month.

The Perpetrators of the Deed.

The following extract will make manifest to every one, how in part, the wicked, false and damaging impression has been made at the North and in Washington, that the results of the late elections in this State, were hostile to the administration and to the terms of reconstruction proposed. The extract is taken from the Cincinnati Commercial:

"The conduct of North Carolina, as exhibited in her election returns has produced general disappointment. North Carolina was supposed to be the most firm supporter of the Union cause among all the rebellious States. The defeat, however, of Governor Holden, a man of ability, and, it was thought, of great popularity in the State, proves quite the opposite, and that the views of the people of that State have been greatly misunderstood.

"The Raleigh Standard declares the rebels of North Carolina 'would crush the Union men into the ground to-day, had they the power.—They would murder, burn and hang as before—The old leaven is still in their hearts. They are yet traitors.' Or, as the Progress says: 'Leniency toward leading traitors has, instead of humbling and improving them, only emboldened them to have treason recognized as a virtue."

In this State, such expressions, as that the rebels here, "would crush the Union men into the ground to-day, had they the power. They would murder, burn and hang as before. They are yet traitors," and further that "leniency toward leading traitors has, instead of humbling and improving them, only emboldened them to have treason recognized as a virtue," coming from the sources they do, have had no influence upon our people at home. Such charges against the people of North Carolina, are known to be utterly false, and believed to have been made by their authors for partizan effect. They have been contradicted time and again, and the characters of the men elected by the people, fully deny them.

The Northern press eagerly gathers up such expressions, as indicative of the feelings of the South, while they overlook thousands of facts which go to prove the contrary. The true men of the South deny these assertions, which have no shadow of proof, but exist in the feculent imaginations of men who are determined to "rule or ruin."

The terms "rebels" and "traitors" are constantly in the mouths of these men, whose past record places them undeniably in the same category, but whose betrayal of the confidence of the people, dooms them to the condemnation of all honest men. Yet no one proposes to harm them—no one would seek their personal damage or injury—no one seeks revenge for their malice and abuse, except to express their disapprobation at the ballot-box. True North Carolinians can never trust or confide in them. Their violent and wicked slanders of our people, made under such circumstances which ought to have deterred even the spirit of a demon from traducing his own associates and cotemporaries in sorrow and suffering, is a step beyond which they may not hope for forgiveness and recognition in any short period.

These traducers and villifiers have sought to alienate the President from the people of North Carolina, although every public man in the State from Gov. Holden down, in all their public statements have endorsed the loyalty of our people. The Legislature fresh from the people, have unanimously declared these assaults upon the loyalty of our people, utterly false and unfounded--have declared their confidence in the President and their endorsement of his reconstruction policy, and yet, North Carolina is still made the butt of attack, by those who delight in misrepresenting our people.

Our people in the mean time are conscious of the rectitude of their intentions. Though justice and right to us, may be tardy, they will come; and the State and her citizens will be vindicated against the assaults of calumny and prejudice.

Our Public Schools.

The war and its reults have prostrated and ruined the means of the State and the people to maintain an efficient system of public schools among us. For years to come the resources of the State and people are to be seriously taxed for other purposes, rendering it almost impossible to accomplish anything desirable or useful in this regard. Yet the duty to educate our children is imperious. Next to food and clothing, their education must be secured.

How can this be done without taxation and aid from the State? The State can afford but little aid for some time to come. To tax the people generally for this object, would be the better plan, if they were in a condition to be taxed. This however, cannot be entirely overlooked. If our schools can only be kept up three months in the year, it is far better than to abandon them altogether. The strong impression in favor of education among the masses, leads us to believe that in most neighborhoods, where schools have existed, strong efforts will be made to keep them in operation. The good fruits of our system of Public Schools cannot fail to keep up the interest.

It is important therefore, that in every neighborhood where a school has heretofore existed, every effort should be made to revive it, upon the private responsibilities of the neighborhood, until the State can come to their aid. Let not the effort to have a school in every neighborhood be abandoned, until it has been fully made, and made earnestly and frequently.

In the meantime, this great interest demands the earnest fostering care of the Legislature, and the wisest arrangements for its perpetuation and efficiency.

THE KEY STONE.—Messrs. W. B Smith & Co., the publishers, have laid on our table the first number of The Key Stone, revived. It is neatly gotten up and will be patronized by the Masonic order generally. Price $3 per year. It is a monthly magazine.

We learn that the name of Wm. A. Jenkins Esq., was omitted in the vote in the election of Judge for the second Judicial district. Mr. Jenkins voted for Judge Howard.

Davidson College, North Carolina, was reopened on the 28th ult., with the formation of three of the regular college classes.

Further Report From Mexico.

New York, Nov. 30.—The Galveston Bulletin of the 15th gives news from Brownsville, brought thither by Captain Eton F. Brown, that the Juarists are gaining ground in the siege of Matamoras.—General Espinosa was not killed, as reported. Lt. Col. E. Myer, late of the United States army, has been made a General in the Liberal forces, and Dr. H. Elleverse, of the United States army, a Major.

Later from Jamaica.

The Insurrection Completely Crushed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Advices from Havana to the 25th instant bring Jamaica and Haytien dates to the 17th received by the steamer Columbello. The Emperor of Hayti, Souloque, his Prime Minister Solomon, and twenty-four others of his family and suite, are passengers by her en route for St. Thomas, having been sent away from Jamaica by the British.

The insurrection in Jamaica is reported as entirely subdued. Paul Bogle, the leader of the insurrection, with many others have been publicly executed, and there are several more under arrest, who are to be condemned to the same death.

From Hayti we learn, via Kingston, that Cape Haytien has been bombarded by two British war steamers, and the city reduced to ashes and the forts destroyed.

The troops of President Geffrard are in possession of what was the city. There were many killed and wounded among the rebels. The place was the stronghold of the rebellion.

It is generally believed that the rebellion is at an end. Geffrard is retaining in tranquility the Presidential chair.

Arrival of Congressmen.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes:

The present rate of arrivals of Congressmen insures a quorum of both branches on the day of meeting. As soon as they get quarters they generally call upon the President to compare notes and exchange congratulations. Quite a number of western members, including Senator Guthrie, of Kentucky, are calling to-day, and also a number of gentlemen from the various sections, having special matters to confer about. The frequent and almost constant demands upon the time of the President do not now so much incommode, as the message is in a full state of forwardness for communicating to Congress.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

Washington, Nov. 30.—The Government has no present apprehension of difficulties with France or Maximilian. Gen. Grant speaks for himself.

In perhaps the best and highest quarters here, where friendship exists for the South, the advice is to refrain from pressing claims to seats in Congress. Such a course, it is considered, will challenge the magnanimity of Northern Representatives, if it does not excite a sense of the great responsibility resting upon them in proposing to let the South go unrepresented and her people disfranchised. I believe that Mr. McPherson will not put on the roll of the House the names of any members from Tennessee.

U. S. Senators from Alabama.

MONTGOMERY Ala., Nov. 30.—The two houses of the legislature in convention yesterday elected G. W. Houston and Lewis E. Parsons United States Senators. Mr. Houston was formerly a member of the United States House of Representatives. Mr. Parsons is the provisional governor of the State, and both are union men.

Death of P. H. Winston, Esq.

We did not hear of the demise of this venerable and excellent man until yesterday. We announce his death with regret. He died very suddenly on Saturday night last, at the residence of Mrs. H. W. Miller, in the 66th year of his age.

He was a man of quiet, unassuming manners, kind and gentle in his spirit and a general favorite among his acquaintance. He was learned in the law, holding a high position in this regard among his associates at the bar, but unlike his relative, Patrick Henry of Virginia, was not gifted in speech.

His health had been feeble, but on the day of his death, it was ordinarily good. His death is universally lamented by those who knew him.

His funeral was largely attended from the Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. An appropriate sermon on the occasion was delivered by Rev. Dr. Lacy.

The following eloquent and impressive tribute to his memory, was called forth from the bar of the city and others, by the occasion, and is as well merited as it is fit:

A meeting of the members of the Raleigh Bar convened at the Court House (upon short notice) on Monday morning at half past 9 o'clock, to take proper action, and publicly to express their sentiments, in relation to the melancholy death of Mr. Winston.

There were present of the Bar here, Gov. Manly, Gov. Graham, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, H. W. Husted Esq., Judge Fowle, Hon. John H. Bryan, B. F. Moore, Esq., H. A. Badham Esq., Kemp P. Battle Esq., Col. Wm. C. Clark, R. H. Battle Esq., Rich'd C. Badger Esq., W. K. Barham Esq. and Q. Busbee Esq. There were also present, representing the profession in various sections of the State, Hon. D. L. Swain of the University, Hon. E. G. Reade of the Supreme Court, Hon. Judge Barnes, John Pool Esq., Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Wm. A. Jenkins Esq., Col. Bynum, Jno W. Cameron Esq., A. S. Merrimon Esq., Jos. S. Cannon, Esq., and L. Q. Sharpe Esq.

On motion of Judge Fowle, Hon D. L. Swain was called to preside over the meeting. Upon taking his seat, Gov. Swain paid a feeling tribute to the menory ef Mr. Winston.

On motion of Judge Barnes, Quent Busbee Esq., was requested to act as Secretary

Gov Graham, after an eloquent eulogy, relating many interesting incidents in the life, and of the character of Mr. Winston, moved that Kemp P Battle Esq., Gov. Manly, Hon. Judge Reade, Hon. John H Bryan and Hon. Judge Fowle, be appointed a committee, to report proper resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting. On motion of Hon. John H. Bryan, Gov. Graham was added to the committee Carried.

On motion, Col. Clarke, Hon. S. H. Rogers, Judge Barnes, H. W. Husted Esq., H. A. Badham Esq., were appointed a committee of arrangements to superintend the funeral.

The committee on Resolutions, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

PATRICK HENRY WINSTON, died suddenly in the City of Raleigh, on the night of the 2d day of December A. D., 1865, in the 66th year of his age.

He began life a practicing lawyer, and although never imposing as a popular orator, yet, he was efficient as a debater, using our language in its purity, and with great precision; and was one of the most learned lawyers of this or of any age—possessing in an eminent degree, the confidence of the legal profession, and of the Supreme Court, before which he had long practiced, and of which he was the Reporter.

In general literature, in the arts and sciences, in theology, in the political and constitutional history of this and of other countries, he was deeply read and extraordinarily accurate.

He was a genial companion, a sure friend, and of unflinching integrity; of humble devotion, and a matchless defender of his religious faith.

The irregularites too often incident to early life, if such he had, were so entirely avoided as experience and age came upon him, that he may well be presented to our profession as a model of modesty, learning and integrity. Therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Patrick Henry Winston, the legal profession has lost one of its highest ornaments, the State one of its most useful citizens, and society one of its most agreeable constituents.

Resolved, That we will attend the funeral and burial of the distinguished dead, at three o'clock this afternoon.

The committe of arrangements reported that Gov. Manly, Hon. John H. Bryan, B. F. Moore, Esq., Hon. Judge Reade, Gov. Graham, E. B. Freeman, Esq., Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq., H. W. Husted, Esq., Hon. W. N. H. Smith, and Col. W. P. Bynum, were elected to act as pall-bearers, and that the funeral would take place from the Presbyteri n Church at 3 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of Kemp P. Battle, Esq, the meeting adjourned.

Yankee Cuteness and Southern Cant.

I am "native here and to the manor born."—For four long years through hardships, disease, danger and adversity I have endeavored to sustain the failing banner of a now fallen cause.—As I have witnessed their valor and ever admired their virtues, my countrymen may feel assured that it is not through anger or in malice, that I now advert to their failings. It has been too long customary with the Southern people to look with a certain degree of contempt upon everything in the manners, customs and opinions of those who live North of Mason's and Dixon's line which differs from their own. The North, and especially New England, has been so long the seat of all the isms and the abode whence the locust like clouds of humbugs, patent medicines and pseudo-philanthropism have arisen and overspread the land, that this feeling is natural, and to some extent justifiable. But it is much to be deprecated when we seek to excuse our own indolence by styling as Yankee cuteness and cunning the enterprise and energy in which we are so signally wanting and which has written in living light so many pages that record the progress of our country and the triumphs of our race. The "peculiar institution" has indeed been a curse to the country that gave it a domicil, and to the land that has witnessed its sudden extinction. Our daughters have grown up in frivolity and our sons without expectation of aught but pleasure. Our old men have lived in ease and the young have followed fast in the footsteps of indolence. Our magnificent country is unimproved, our factories unbuilt, our wants supplied from without, and the South, like the sun upon Gibeon, has stood still in the onward race. The old have declaimed against Yankee enterprise as an abomination of Egypt, and the rising generation have lisped it in detestation.—Let them look around. From the inkstand from which I write and the pen with which I trace these lines, to the printing press on which they are promulgated, from the cradle in which we were rocked and the carved bedstead on which we repose, to the coffin that will receive us at our death, and the tombstone that shall commemorate our virtues to the succeeding generation, there is but little of the comforts or conveniences, and few even of the necessaries of life for which we are not indebted to that same universal Yankee nation. The very cotton that whitens our fields must pass through Yankee looms before it adorns our belles or clothes our laborers.

Nor does the spirit of cant stop there. Does one of our own citizens succeed in amassing a fortune by a laudable enterprise and a praiseworthy exhibition of energy, suspicion of unfair dealing and use of the tricks of trade, is the reward of his deviation from the beaten paths of indolence and inactivity. Unaccustomed to labor themselves they either look with suspicion upon the reward of intelligent application, or excuse themselves to their own souls, that they are two honest to succeed in life! The Indians when they first saw the evidence of how much intelligence and enterprise may accomplish—the steamboat—unable to understand it and unwilling to concede the superiority of the white man, concluded that the evil spirit must be connected with it and give it the motive power. Surprised at the success which ever attends well directed effort our people must needs attribute unworthy motives or means to him who applies it. Let us away with this self excusing spirit of cant. We must foster enterprise. We must encourage energy and industry. Our people are indolent. This is our besetting sin, and possessing the country that we do it cries to Heaven against us.

When the greatest of orators was aked what was the first rule of oratory, he replied action! When asked what was the second he still answered action! And the third? ACTION! The story has its application and in our times. It is work, work, WORK that we need. This is the great panacea for all the ills that society is heir to. This will efface the ravages of war, suppress crime, organize and consolidate society, cover our fields with harvests and bring "smiling plenty" with her attendant train of household divinities to preside at our firesides. Let our people go to work. Work "in the living present" ere sorrow come and old age draw nigh. The climate is fine, and there is an abundance of good soil if properly improved. Heaven and earth seem to conspire to make us indeed a land of promise. Work we must and redeem this fine country from the hand of the slothful, and the sluggard, or a bolder and a hardier race must occupy our seats. Let us be true, true to our country and true to ourselves and leave not the regeneration of the finest country on the globe to another people, and other times.

Letter from Ike Simpson.

ROLLY, Nov. 30.

Mister editur:—The last artikle I writ for your paper was the 1st, and threw your kerticey, it was my 1st letter to a distunt reletive of myne named Arp, down in Georgy, hoo has distinguished himself bye writtin for neuse papers on the subjeck of gittin our unfortinate fellor citizens to berry the Thomshork and harmonize and recontruck on fuss principles. His efforts to melorate the condishun of our subjewgatid peopul ar serturnly kommendable, and I jine him.

Your komplimentory letter colissitin me to kommunukate the proseedens of the legislater for your daily Neuse, meats my distinguished konsideration, and I'le do it.

Both houses—thar an 2 rumes in the State house—elected the honorable Richmun M. Purson, W. H. Battle and E. G. Reide, judges of the Cuprem kort to-day. Thar was a great many kanderdates but only 3 kould be elected.

On yesterday, General United States Grant was gerlanted into the Senate by 2 or 3 members and he stopt right in the middle of the ile and Mr Settle the Speaker of the Senate riz up in his seat and made a speech to Mr. Grant, and told him he was morn welkume to take one of the cheers among the Sinaturs. And Mr Settle sed a heap of big things about rekonstructin and that we ort'n to bin so norty as to try to be a free and independunt peopul, and then he welkumed Gen'l Grant agin and tuck him by the hand and led him to the cheer that old Andrew Jiner and old Mr. Edwards used to set in. And endurin all this, all the Sinators stood up and nobody didn't say nuthin to nobody. Nor Genl Grant didn't say nuthin neither. Sirr, right strate in a minit, I got hot all over—I wasnt mad with Genl Grant, because he was invited thar—and piece is made. But I got mad! I tried to say sumthin funny, and got choked fast, and I saw the thing was up with me, and Mr Inglebart, the klark of the Sinate tuck me to his room whar I sot down and the teers run down my cheeks like a new spring jist diskivered for nigh about 2 hours. My early edikashun was the only thing that prevented me from kussin every Sinator for looking like they war so glad to see Mr. Grant, when they all noed he give us the worse beatin any poor devils ever got in thar lives, I'm mighty glad I didn't tho', as the Sinate would have declared my seat vakant for kontempt of kort.

Thar has been several electshuns in the legislatur. Old Mr. Freeman was elected engrosein clark without opposishun and Mr. Phillips Speaker of the House, tho he don't say much. Your bruther was a canderdate for reading klark in the Sinate, but didn't git many votes. I was in the Sinate when the members was votin, and I saw how the thing was agoin, and how disappinted the old Giraffe man looked—tho' he kept on writin as if he did'nt no what was doin I went up to him and offered him my konsulashuns and a chaw of tobacco—which latter artikle he tuck and put the tother piece in his pocket and did'nt say nothin. I pursisted in my remarks when he lucked me strait in the face and axed me if I had had an interdukshn to Gen'l Grant! I left him in a minit and went over tother side and offered my konserlashuns to Mister Husted, who only looked at me as ef he had just make a contrack for 100 barrels of good vinegar.

On friday the konstitushional amendmint declarin niggers no moore forrever to xist in the United States passed the Sinate and nobody voted agin it but old Mister Jeemes Morehead, hoo sed he didn't think this ole State ort to give up her right to legislate on the nigger, ef she throt fit too—tho he was for harmonizin back intoo the Union as fast as he could, as he had got mighty cold stayin away from Unkle Sam's fire so long. He wasn't going to go for havin niggers any moore, but as President Johnson had magnanamusly left the Stats to sey nigger vote, or nigger you shant vote, he sed so two, and kongress had nothing to do with it. Old mister More Head was nigh right, and ef we all is got to eet durt, he wouldn't eet hisn without sayin he didn't like too. For my own part, my idikation makes me hate all durt eaters.

Yours, IKE SIMPSON.

P. S—Next mundy the legislater is goin to elect Mr. Graham and Mr. Holden U. S. Sinators, and we'll have civil lor and Mr. Wurth Guverner.—Goldsboro' News.

From Mexico—Retreat of the French From Sinaloa.

Additional official news has been received by the Mexican Minister, to the effect that only the State of Chihuahua, but also that of Sinaloa was being evacuated by the French, who no longer oppose the Republican insurrection. Abandoning Novia, Concordia and Mesillas, they were compelled to embark at Mazatlan, where only four hundred were left.—This retreat had encouraged the patriots, who under the command of General Rull, were getting ready to attact the city, thus putting an end to the French invasion of Sinaloa.

Of Croup, in Milton, N. C., on the evening of the 20th November, FRIOU, eldest son of Rebecca A. and Jasper Fleming, aged four years, one month and ten days.

Thy sweetness, patience under suffering,
All promised us an opening day,
Must fair and told that to subdue thee,
Would need but love's most gentle sway.

And does my selfish heart then grudge thee,
That angels are thy teachers now,—
That glory from thy Saviour's presence,
Kindles the crown upon thy brow?

Oh, no! to me earth must be lonelier,
Wanting thy voice, thy hand, thy love;
Yet dost thou dawn a star of promise,
Mild beacon to the world above.

NEW GOODS.

New Line Opened! Makes Two Trips to the Old Line's One!

A. CREECH HAS JUST RETURNED FROM the North, where he has bought his second supply of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Embracing the various New Styles of the Season, together with Ladies' Cloaks, Long Shawls, Breakfast Shawls, Ladies and Misses' Goods, Ladies and Misses' Hoop Skirts, Ladies and Misses' Balmoral Shoes, Gent's Boots and Shoes, Boys, Youths and Children's Boots and Shoes. Felt Hats, the Derby, the Dasher, the Planter's wide brim, and other styles for Men's wear. Boys, Youths and Children's Hats. Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery and Glass Ware, and a superior lot of Family Groceries.

Take my stock altogether, I have one among the largest and most desirable and complete stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods in the City.

Now, allow me to say that I bought my Goods to sell, and they must and shall be sold; but I don't expect to take a piece of poetry in one hand and a full grown humbug in the other and climb up to the clouds and fish out the birds of Paradise and gently bring them down with a placard stuck on their backs, "Selling out at Cost! selling out at cost!" No, I deal in no such humbug. I keep no such a class of Goods. I keep no time-worn, shelf-rubbed, defaced or dusty Goods—dust so thick you can rub it off with a knife. My Goods are all new, and of good styles, and I intend to sell them as low as anybody that bought goods with the expectation of paying for them, and the man that sold the goods to the man that don't intend to pay for them, is a fool—and the man that sells them is a rascal. Now this is plain talk, but 'tis no slip of the tongue. I mean what I say, and say what I mean. I have lived here and sold goods here for twenty years. I expect to remain here. I pay my taxes to support Institutions of the City, County and the State. I expect to continue to do so. I respectfully ask my old customers, my old friends and new ones to call and examine my stock. I will deal with you honest and treat you right. If I don't sell you goods as cheap as you can buy the same class of goods elsewhere I don't expect you to buy. Call at the R. Smith building, house formerly occupied by Creech & Litchford, Merchants and Auctioneers.

A. CREECH.
